

DDT's Board Members

Chair : Keir Bloomer : Keir was formerly Director of Education and Chief Executive of Clackmannanshire Council and is now an education consultant.

Vice Chair : Steve Mason : Steve works in housing strategy and has been involved in the Holmehill group since its inception. He chairs the Community Facilities Forum and is leading DDTs efforts to take ownership of the Braeport Centre.

Secretary : Dougal Thornton : Dougal currently runs his own landscape architecture consultancy, having previously worked in local government in Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Stirling..

Treasurer : Janice Stewart : Janice worked in secondary education and was Graeme High School's liaison with the consortium which built the new school as one of the first PFI initiatives in Scotland. Janice chairs the Environment Group.

Alan Booth : Alan works as an Environmental Consultant. He is Community Councillor, is involved in the production of Dunblane Community News and chairs the Development Group.

Lawrie Dewar : Lawrie ran his own self-service grocery store and then became Chief Executive of the Scottish Grocers Federation Trade Association. He served on the Low Pay Commission and is a Community Councillor.

Malcolm Dougall : Malcolm spent the bulk of his career, both in Scotland and overseas, in the commercial management of construction projects. He joined DDT to act as Project Director of the High Street Site.

Tim Hughes : Tim worked with the NHS and was a member of a Hospital Trust management board. He is involved with Sustainable Dunblane and serves as Deputy Chair of an Overseas Development NGO.

Jessica Lindohf : Jessica works as manager for Stirling and District Women's Aid who provides advice and support to those experiencing domestic abuse. She has a great interest in Equality, Diversity and Human rights and provides consultancy, and training in this area.

Bill Stewart : Bill assisted in the negotiations with Stirling Council which resulted in DDT leasing the Braeport Centre. He has been heavily involved in running the Centre ever since.

Morag Watson : Morag was a member of the Fling committee and a founder member of Sustainable Dunblane. She works for WWF as a Policy Officer, advising Government on sustainable development, education & behaviour change.

Alan Cessford : Alan is a retired civil engineer who worked throughout his career for private sector organisations.

Ian Gill : Ian returned to his native Scotland after working for most of his career in London and overseas. He now runs his own HR consultancy and is Deputy Chair of an African Health Charity.