“Boots On For Bangalore Breakfast” in Ashfield Sat 3rd April

There’s a treat in store for walkers, cyclists and drivers arriving at Ashfield Village Hall on Sat 3rd of April.

From 9 am to 12.00, local residents Alison Hepburn and Janet Morrison are planning a sumptuous “Big Breakfast” for all visitors . There will be cereals, croissants, cooked breakfasts , filled rolls and teas at affordable prices for all those who have worked up an appetite coming to the venue.

Alison says “ We are hoping that groups of local walkers will enjoy the lovely walk up the Allanwater from Dunblane to Ashfield, to enjoy a good Scottish Breakfast at our village hall..”

The Big Breakfast is part of the ongoing fund raising campaign for the Parikrma Orphanage in Bangalore where Alison’s daughter Catriona will be working over the summer. You can learn all about the project by visiting the website <http://www.gla.ac.uk/clubs/sva/India.html>
