

Memories of Ashfield

Do you, or anybody you know, have memories of Ashfield, the mill village on the Allan Water, north of Dunblane?

Did you live, work or visit there in former times?

Did you work at Pullar's or British Silk Dyeing?

Do you have memories, photos or documents of people and places, activities or events?

If so, the Ashfield History Project would love to hear from you - we'd like to record the history of the village from as many people as possible.

Please email us at history@ashfield-village.org.uk or tel 07766 741939 or write to History Project, Ashfield Village Hall, Ashfield, Dunblane FK15 0JX.
